COVENANT OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS ADOPTED

The peace conference Monday formally adopted the amended covenant of the proposed League of Nations, and is proceeding to the formation of the League at once. Sir Eric Drummond was named secretary general of the proposed League and committees have been named to further work out details.

American Plane to Make Try.
The American naval plane, the NC3, having concluded a successful long distance flight, is ready at any time to start on a trial of the trans-Atlantic flight, according to a statement of the commander of the American naval air service.

Alva Wins from Durant.
In debate here at the Normal auditorium last Friday night, the Alva team won over the Southeastern Normal team, the visitors having the affirmative side of the question: "Resolved: That the Government should own and operate the railroads within the territory of the United States." Messrs. Hubert Dees and Hugh Ownby represented the local school. The other team of the Southeastern, taking the affirmative side of the same question, defeated the Alva team at Alva, thus evening up the matter, and still keeping the Southeastern within reach of the championship.

Home From Oil Field.
A. K. Nanny, who has been at Hennepin, Oklahoma, for the past month superintending drilling operations for the Lorena Oil and Gas Company, is at home for a few days. He says the prospects are fine, and if he doesn't bring in a well he is going to be badly fooled.

Revival Closed.
The Baptiste revival, which has been conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. G. Butler, for some two weeks, was concluded Sunday night. The meetings resulted in the addition of some two dozen to the church, and interest was aroused and maintained surpassing the usual revival services.

THE 50,000,000 ROAD BONDS

The Daily Oklahoman figures that Oklahoma City with miles of pavement can get along without State roads. It doesn't want the motor vehicles of that city, that roll over hard-surfaced roads day or night every day of the year, to have to assist in paying for roads out in the State, to help the other towns.

THE $50,000,000 ROAD BONDS

Why the FARMER should vote "YES."
He is NOT TAXED one cent to build the roads or retire the bonds.
The roads are a GIFT to him by the State.
He will be taxed from 1c to 8c an acre for their maintenance after they are ready for him to use.
Who wouldn't be willing to help keep up a good road after it was given to him?

Germans Plan Plebiscite on Treaty.
Preparations for a plebiscite on terms offered to Germany, if such terms are considered necessary, are being planned, according to the Cologne Gazette.

Victory Loan Progress.
Tuesday of this week the Victory Liberty Loan had been about one-fourth subscribed, and progress had been much better than at a corresponding period in the Fourth Loan campaign, according to Government announcement.

Gap Sowell Discharged.
Gap Sowell is at home, having been discharged after about a year and a half of service in the Navy. Gap was assigned to duty on one of the boats whose duty it was to drop depth bombs and otherwise make life hard for the submarines. He has been across the pond several times, and had lots of experience on both sides and in the middle of the briny deep.

Saw Service at Chateau-Thierry.
R. V. Evans, brother of Dr. Evans, is here for a few days, having recently been discharged from the army. Mr. Evans saw a year's service in France with the heavy artillery of the Fourth Division. It was the artillery of this division that followed up the Marines at Chateau-Thierry, and which saw such hardships in the Argonne and at St. Mihiel. Evans has had a number of close shaves but got through the whole business without a scratch, save that he is almost deaf as a result of the concussion of the big guns. He brought back a number of curios from the war, including a couple of the much-talked-of "footies," or trench lice, which he has imprisoned securely beneath the crystal of a watch that he took from a German prisoner.

Nix on Curtained Booths.

Oklahoma City has passed an ordinance forbidding and prohibiting certain booths in restaurants in that city, and also it expends business for the prohibition to further provide such adjuncts to their places of business.

String of Warehouses.

A $20,000,000 corporation, comprising cotton brokers, cotton millers and bankers has been formed which will build a string of warehouses over the country to be used for storing cotton for the protection of the industry.

To Teach Agriculture.

The State Vocational Board is perfecting plans for the teaching of rudimentary agriculture in all the high schools of this State. In all probability, through Government aid, special teachers will be secured.

The Greatest Issue Ever Before Oklahoma

Tuesday, May 6th, the voters of Oklahoma are to be given an opportunity to declare if they desire

50 Million Dollars For Hard Surface Roads

The Legislature, with only four dissenting votes, declared in favor of the State building (without cost to the individual taxpayers), a state-wide system of roads that will Advance the value of every foot of land in Oklahoma.

Make country life worth while to the farmers—the greatest users of our highways.

Stop the squandering of public funds on dirt roads, as is now being done in every county.

That will connect every county-seat town in the state.

The Big Features of the Proposed Bond Issue Are:

Roads donated by the state to each County without cost.

Construction costs defrayed by oil, gas and automobile tax.

Construction to be along lines approved by the Federal Government, which is necessary to secure financial aid from that source.

Government aid, plus fifty million dollars from sale of bonds, will build every foot of road proposed by the Legislature.

NO OPPONENT CAN SHOW HOW CONNECTING HARD SURFACE ROADS IN OKLAHOMA CAN BE SECURED OTHERWISE.

If you would take Oklahoma out of the mud, #
